

Neurodiversity @ Cornell

Support & engagement opportunities for students

IDENTITY-BASED GROUPS:

Executive Function Community of Practice

For any student who self-identifies as having executive function issues. Focused on sharing strategies to support our executive function, creating connection and community.

Meets Wednesdays 4:00-5:00 pm, via Zoom.

Autism Social Group

For students who self-identify as autistic or have an autism diagnosis. Dedicated to social support & comradery.

Meets Thursdays, 4:00-5:30 pm, via Zoom

To receive relevant information, and reminders for events, please join the listservs:

- Send an email to executive-function-community-l-request@cornell.edu or to autism-social-group-l-request@cornell.edu
- On the subject line, type: "join"
- Don't write anything on the body of the email

ADVOCACY:

Neurodiversity Ambassadors

For students, faculty and staff.

Focused on activities and advocacy to enhance understanding about experiences and needs of the neurodivergent community @ Cornell and to advocate for inclusive Cornell experiences.

To join: Please email Florencia Ardon (fa227).

RESOURCES:

Workshops on Demand: Can be requested by groups, for any topic related to Neurodiversity

To request a workshop, please send an email to Sarah Bonawitz (sb2545), for topics related to accommodations and supports, or to Florencia Ardon (fa227), if related to learning strategies.

One-on-one support: Can be requested by individual students. Contacts:

- Sarah Bonawitz (sb2545) if you want to know more about working with Student Disability Services3
- Emily McClintock for psychological support & referrals (schedule through Cornell Health)
- Florencia Ardon (fa227) to discuss learning strategies (book an appointment).

Neurodiversity Dialogues: Monthly discussion forum based on research articles, videos & podcasts about neurodiversity. Meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month, 3:00-4:00 pm, via Zoom. To join: Please email Flor (fa227) asking to be added to the meeting.

CANVAS site for students: Strength-focused information on neurodiversity. Self-enroll

General Neurodiversity Information:

Announcements listserv. To join,

- Send an email to neurodiversity-at-Cornell-l-request@cornell.edu
- On the subject line, type: "join"
- Don't write anything on the body of the email

More information about Neurodiversity @ Cornell